Begun with "Awake" (2004), followed with "Blessings - Voyage to Shangri-La" (2005), 'Blessings - Voyage to Shangri-La - Part II" (2007), "Return to Shangri-La – Heaven" (2009), to his last Solo Exhibition at Sin Sin Fine Art in 2011, one could see Sun Guangyi's continuing efforts to connect his spiritual world with the natural environments he inhabits.

"Beyond Heavens" shows the result of his most recent contemplative discoveries: there are many layers of heaven, many layers of blessing - one after another. It is a distillation of his spiritual journey in twelve years of devoted, self-determined search for the ultimate peace of a freed soul.

Born 1967 in Liaoning Province, Mengzhou City, Sun Guangyi took great interest in painting at a young age. In 1983 he attended the Shenzhou Art Academy and studied traditional Chinese painting and calligraphy, graduating from the Liaoning University of Art and Culture. Having been to the Beijing Yuan Ming Yuan ("Garden of Perfect Brightness" Artist Village), Sun experienced the greatness of the Eastern philosophy, as well as the great scriptures and the old masters. The experience (in the Artist Village) cleansed his soul and made Sun realized the vastness of the universe. The style of his works have been influenced by his being a devoted Buddhist and hence a vegetarian since 1998, following a Buddhist Monk from the Himalayas.

As part of his creative process, Sun Guangyi writes poems which he calls his "Mountain Diary". The following are several that he wrote during working on "Beyond Heavens" - translated into English.

Mountain Diary - 2015.4.17
Spring hills snow hard to find
Trees and pines of the month of Yin
Blissful as laughing dream
Crude tea undress, lying down in deep forest

Mountain Diary - 2015.4.12
Life and death's game
The east wall of the west wall ever since
Today, return
Mountains and rivers, in the still world

Mountain Diary - 2015.4.9
A closer look at green peaks
Snow is rolling afar
Alas, as if at ecstasy
I do not know what year, past and present

Mountain Diary - 2015.4.8
Rare mountain people to the mortal world
The heart, nothing
Is there anything different with
